The opening of Social Development month commenced with appreciating and commemorating the older persons of Limpopo. The MEC for Social Development, Mme Nkakareng Rakgoale in her address on International Day for Older Persons held at Regorogile Community Hall, Thabazimbi Local Municipality, called on all South Africans to respect, protect and promote rights of older persons as enshrined in the constitution. International Day for Older Persons is celebrated annually on 1st October.

This year’s celebration was held under the theme: “Embracing Older Persons’ rights”. MEC Rakgoale also encouraged citizens to appreciate older persons as the custodians of indigenous knowledge and culture. Various local cultural groups rendered performances to entertain the older persons and to showcase the rich Tswana culture and tradition of the local area.

The MEC for Social Development, Ms. Nkakareng Rakgoale on the 4th of October 2019 received learning materials for 40 ECD centres from Eskom as part of their Corporate Social Investment programme. The handover took place at Rebone/Steilloop Community Hall, Mogalakwena Municipality.

“Eskom is committed to contribute to a better future for our children and the donation is made possible through the Eskom Power Delivery Unit. The Department of Social Development collaborated with Eskom with Early childhood Development (ECD), an objective to enhance children’s learning experience and creation of a secure and safe playing environment,” said Cecil Ramonotse, CEO of Eskom Development Foundation. “The symbolic handover is represented by how committed Eskom, the Department of Social Development, municipalities and other institutions are and that they play a vital role in developing children for a better future”. The MEC greatly treasured the generous token from Eskom and encouraged other corporate institutions to do more to ensure that children’s educational foundation is strongly embedded for a better future.

MEC visits vandalised One Stop Centre in Tshitale

The MEC for Social Development, Ms Nkakareng Rakgoale on the 08th October 2019 visited the Social Development centre at Tshitale in the Makhado Municipal area after community members went on the rampage, vandalising the building which houses SASSA employees and social workers, demanding a tarred road.

MEC Rakgoale was very shocked about the incident and stated that she went to inspect the building to come to terms with the damage and the thoughtless acts of community members, to just destroy the infrastructure that helps the older people, children and other vulnerable citizens. She suggested to close the building and leave the matter to the police to investigate. “Some of the services will be rendered from Muila Tribal Office, Muwaweni and Mashamba, until the building is repaired."

Ms Rakgoale reiterated her call for community members to take ownership of government buildings by protecting them during violet protests. Files of clients, office equipment and furniture have also been destroyed by the protestors.

Every year a day is set aside for provincial department officials to unwind from the hectic daily schedule and partake in various physical activities like aerobics, volleyball, netball and soccer. 11th October 2019 brought with it a day filled with sports activities and even indigenous games like Morabaraba, engaged in by government departments. The Public Service Sports and Wellness Day was held at the Polokwane Cricket Club.
Tshifudi Village, Thulamela Local Municipality, Vhembe District was honoured with the presence of the MEC for Social Development, Ms Nkakareng Rakgoale, on the 17th of October 2019, where community projects dealing with sewing, woodwork and farming products displayed their goods in an effort to showcase and promote the projects as opportunities to relieve poverty and unemployment.

The event was the Province’s chapter of commemorating International Day for the Eradication of Poverty. This year’s commemorations were held under the theme: “Acting together to empower children, their families and communities to end poverty”. This day is significant for all South Africans, especially those communities that are living in abject poverty. Government has, since the birth of democracy, put in place mechanisms, policies and programmes to address the triple challenges of poverty, inequality and unemployment that continue to affect the lives of many of our people.

MEC, Ms Nkakareng Rakgoale also officially handed over gardening tools and seeds to 10 households. In total, 34 households benefited from the handover, which will aid in producing their own food and relieving poverty in the community.
The Deputy Minister of Social Development, Ms Hendrietta Bogopane-Zulu in partnership with the South African National AIDS Council (SANAC) Men’s Sector and the Limpopo Provincial Department of Social Development hosted the Boys Assembly and the District Men’s Parliament in Limpopo Province during October 2019.

The two interventions form part of the Boys and Men Championing Change programme which is implemented under the banner of Takuwani Riime Men’s Movement. The initiatives are anchored in the belief that achieving gender equality is about transforming unequal power and gender relations between men and women. The Boys Assembly event was held on Sunday 27th October 2019 held at Ngoako Ramathodi Sports Complex, Seshgo and the Men’s parliament was held on Monday the 28th October 2019 at Oliver Tambo Hall in Modimolle Municipality, Waterberg District. Deputy Minister Hendriëtta Bogopane-Zulu during both addresses focused on the recent spate of gender based violence incidents that have been plaguing the country and asked men and boys to take the lead in eradicating the scourge.

The number of women abused and killed in South Africa over recent weeks has ignited outrage, street protests and a media storm. The extent of the scourge of gender-based violence is tearing apart families and leaving behind a negative effect. The MEC for Social Development, Mme. Nkakareng Rakgoale during the commemoration of International Men’s Day held in Capricorn District in cooperation with the SADC Unified Ancestors and Traditional Practitioners Association, said the Department will launch district men’s forums in all five districts of Limpopo to appropriately address the scourge of gender based violence. This will create a platform for men to discuss about issues that are affecting them that lead to being involved in gender based violence. During the commemoration of 16 days of no violence against women and children, 12 women and children have been killed in a space of two weeks. The MEC urged community members and especially men to lead the fight against gender based violence.
The MEC for Social Development, Mme Nkakareng Rakgoale has handed over 350 laptops to social workers and community development practitioners who are based in all five districts of the Province. The handover is part of the department’s effort of ensuring that employees receive necessary working tools and ensuring that services to the people are delivered and rendered effectively.
“Endchilddetention” an awareness campaign created to diminish child detention and calls for alternatives to child immigration detention, especially for children. The MEC for Social Development and Save the Children South Africa commemorated United Nations International Migrants Day in Polokwane to raise awareness and highlight the plight of immigrants and further urge communities to always strive to protect immigrants with specific focus on children. The campaign started with a march from SABC Park to Jack Botes hall in Polokwane.
